

Speaker's Profile

Andrew Heywood

UK

Current:

- Editor Housing Finance International
- Independent Consultant specializing in housing policy, housing finance and housing/mortgage markets, governance issues and regulation
- Visiting Fellow in the Department of the Land Economy at the University of Cambridge
- Research Fellow at the Smith Institute, London
- Senior Associate at Campbell Tickell Consultancy

Past:

- Deputy Head of Policy, Council of Mortgage Lenders, London
- Various non-executive appointments including Advisor to Treasury Committee of Bromford Housing Group and Head of Audit Committee at Chelmer Housing Group
- Authorship of reports and articles on housing and mortgage markets for a number of organisations and publications

Education:

- Bachelor of Arts, University of London
- PGCE, University of Birmingham